

Slot-Preserving Allocation, Evidence Registry, and Answer Construction

Public notes

- record 2 supports two logical obligations and consumes physical context once. E2 and E3 remain distinct logical answer requirements.
- one output component per required obligation; comparison requires complete compatible operands
- unsupported components are rejected or reopened; bounded correction reopens only disputed components